DC Open House

Join your fellow residents for the DC Open House Saturday and Sunday October 4 and 5. DC Open House is a weekend when museums, historic houses, and other attractions invite you to sample the city. For more information contact the Cultural Tourism DC at 202-661-7581 or log on to the Internet at www.culturaltourismdc.org

Recycling and Collection

Recyclables have started to be collected again. The recyclables are heavy in volume and are trying to be collected in a timely manner. The days for recyclables to be picked up are on trash days and if your trash is collected twice recyclables are collected on the second pick-up. As for small debris such as branches, twigs, etc carry them to the curb to be picked up. Over 900 tons of tree debris has been collected so far. Residents may also take debris to the city's Fort Totten Trash Transfer Station at 4900 Bates Rd, NE Monday thru Friday 1PM to 5 PM and weekends 8 AM to 3 PM. Sunday operations will be October 12 and 19 2003. For more information contact Mary Myers at 202-671-2375.

Officer Accolades

Robbery Suspects Caught

While on duty in plainclothes at a stop light at 22nd and O Street NW, Lt. Edward Delisi and Sgt. Darrell Brown were approached by a subject who said that four suspects had robbed him. After canvassing the area in the 2300 block of O Street a group of subjects were observed and stopped. The suspects were interviewed and it was determined that two of the subjects that were involved in the robbery had intermingled themselves into a group of citizens that were passing by in an attempt to elude police. The complainant was brought in and positively identified two of the subjects. Both suspects were arrested. Excellent work to both officers.

Assault Suspect Arrested

At approximately 0337 (3:37 AM) hours, while on patrol in the 500 block of P Street NW Lieutenant Diane Groomes observed the complainant walking when the suspect stepped out from behind a wall and hit the complainant in the face with a wooden board rendering the complainant unconscious. Once on the ground the suspect started to go through the complainants pockets. After notifying the dispatcher Groomes drew her service weapon and ordered the suspect to the ground. Upon arrival of additional units the suspect was placed under arrest. Excellent work to Lt. Groomes. 🧑🏻‍🚔
